Washington Park tour will highlight housing assets, options

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II invites residents take a Washington Park Neighborhood Housing Tour on Saturday, September 13.

Organized by Washington Park Partners, the tour will showcase some of the many “wonderful assets and amenities to be found in the Washington Park area,” Alderman Stamper said.

The tour – from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. – will feature a Habitat for Humanity newly constructed home and two of Habitat’s newly rehabbed homes. There will also be an open house for a single-family, three bedroom/one bathroom home for sale from ACTS Housing.

To take part, please meet at Our Next Generation, 3421 W. Lisbon Ave. To learn more about the event please follow this link.
