Alderman Ashanti Hamilton will host a City Hall ceremony tomorrow (Thursday, July 23) celebrating participants who have completed "Be the Change," a literacy, life skills and leadership program in Milwaukee's 1st Aldermanic District.

"I am proud of the growth I have seen in participants of Be the Change," Alderman Hamilton said. "We are equipping youths with skills they need to succeed academically and contribute socially. This program gives them an opportunity to take ownership of their personal growth, and foster positive growth in the community."
