Ald. Hamilton pleased Christmas tree coming from 1st District

Alderman Ashanti Hamilton is extremely proud that a 1st District business, Gen III Woodworks, has been selected to donate the annual City/County Christmas tree. He invites all residents and neighbors to celebrate this honor by attending the Tree Harvesting Ceremony hosted by Mayor Barrett, which will be held tomorrow (Thursday, November 5) at 6:30 a.m. at 7460 N. Teutonia Ave.

After the tree is harvested, it will be transported to Red Arrow Park, where it will be decorated in the city's annual Tree Lighting Ceremony on Thursday, November 19th at 5:15 p.m.

Ald. Hamilton is honored that the 1st District has been selected and recognized to take part in the city's annual tradition: "The 1st District is delighted to take part in the festivities that usher in the holiday season, and we are grateful to Gen III Woodworks for their donation."
