Unity bicycle ride through Riverwest, Harambee on Saturday

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs is encouraging residents to take part in the 53212 Unity Ride through Riverwest and Harambee on Saturday, July 25. The ride will start in the heart of the Historic King Drive Business Improvement District at 2 p.m. at 2021 N. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. (DreamBikes).

“The ride is all-ages, family-friendly, free, and open to all community members, and I encourage residents to take part,” Alderwoman Coggs said.

For those arriving between 1:30 p.m. and 2 p.m., DreamBikes staff will be available to do free bicycle safety checks. Also, DreamBikes is offering $10 bike rentals for children and adults who want to ride but do not have a bike. Bike rentals will require a credit card number as a deposit, and rentals should preferably be secured either Friday (July 24) or on Saturday morning prior to the event.
