Alderwoman Coggs to host town hall covering city budget, contest winners

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs invites residents to a town hall meeting tomorrow that will include a discussion of Mayor Tom Barrett's 2016 proposed budget with City Budget Director Mark Nicolini. Alderwoman Coggs will also announce the winners of the 6th District Landscape Awards, and various other city departments will be available to answer residents' questions. The meeting will take place starting at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow (Thursday, September 24) at the Siloah Lutheran School, 3730 N. 21st St.

Mayor Barrett's budget includes funding body cameras for the Milwaukee Police Department and tax cuts for property owners. Mr. Nicolini will be present to explain the changes that could potentially take place and how they may affect residents. Alderwoman Coggs hopes that residents will take advantage of this opportunity to gain a better understanding of the budget and its potential impact on the 6th District.

"There are certainly many questions and concerns held by residents and observers, and I encourage individuals to attend Thursday's town hall meeting to ask questions and offer input," she said.
