Community invited to Saturday block party in Harambee neighborhood

Celebration dedicated to memory of Dr. James G. White, late Harambee leader/mentor

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs invites residents to attend the Dr. James G. White Birthday Anniversary Bash block party sponsored by the Harambee Community Center tomorrow (Saturday, July 11). The free celebration will take place from noon to 4 p.m. on W. Wright St. near N. 4th St., with the street blocked off between N. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. and N. 4th St.

Alderwoman Coggs said Saturday's celebration is meant as a celebration and tribute for Dr. White, who was a Godfather and mentor to her and many others prior to his sudden passing in 2013. Dr. White served on the Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors and as Regional Vice-President of WestCare WI - Harambee Community Center (formerly Harambee Ombudsman Project). "Dr. White was a special leader who worked hard to bring resources to the neighborhood and the community, and this is a fitting way to pay tribute to him on his birthday anniversary," she said.

The event will include free food, music, and entertainment.
