Committee to take up appointment of Dr. Fred L. Crouther to Fire and Police Commission

The Milwaukee Common Council's Public Safety Committee will take up the appointment of Dr. Fred L. Crouther, the latest mayoral appointee to the Fire and Police Commission, at a meeting on Thursday, March 19 at 9:00 a.m. Members of the public are invited to attend, submit written questions for the appointee or make a brief statement if they desire.

Dr. Crouther is the pastor of New Covenant Baptist Church on N. 38th Street and a longtime advocate for civil rights, disadvantaged populations and disabled people. He's been a resident of Milwaukee since 1964, and is involved with organizations including the NAACP, the YMCA and Milwaukee Inner City Congregations Allied for Hope.

His appearance before the committee is the latest step in Dr. Crouther's appointment to the Fire and Police Commission, following a series of public meetings during which interested citizens were able to learn more about his background and ask questions. After the Public Safety Committee takes up the matter, his appointment may be scheduled for and confirmed by the next meeting of the full Common Council.
