Residents can de-clutter at Saturday's "Choose to Re-Use" holiday decorations event

As part of the Garden District Farmers' Market summer series of "Choose to Re-Use" recycling events, Alderman Terry L. Witkowski invites residents to bring little or no longer used holiday decorations to Saturday's collection session.

Scheduled for 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. on Saturday, August 22, the holiday decorations Choose to Re-Use event is an opportunity to get rid of those old ornaments, artificial trees, lights and displays that are in good repair but no longer of use. Everyone is welcome to leave an item or take an item for free, and all leftover items will be donated.

"For some, 'Choose to Re-Use' is a perfect opportunity to free up some space in the attic," Alderman Witkowski said. "For others, it's more like a free rummage sale with a chance to find something great."

Recycling events and exchanges will continue during the Garden District Farmers' Market every Saturday through August 29, with books being the next and final theme (August 29). A schedule is available at milwaukee.gov/District13. For more information contact Dawn Riegel at jdriegel@msn.com or (414) 379-2450.
