MEDIA ADVISORY

Busy weekend on tap for the Garden District

Alderman Terry L. Witkowski invites residents to take part in a weekend full of family-friendly outdoor activities centered on the Garden District's signature Farmers' Market, including a neighborhood rummage sale on Sunday.

Movies in the Garden will take place at dusk, 7:00 p.m. on Friday, September 18 at the Farmers' Market site. The film for this month is Cinderella (Rated PG). Admission is free, and neighbors are invited to bring their kids and some popcorn.

The Perennial Exchange will take place Saturday, September 19 at the Farmers' Market site from 10:00 a.m. to noon. Green thumbs are invited to bring labeled and divided perennials and seeds to exchange with others.

The Garden District Farmers' Market will take place in the afternoon on Saturday, September 19 from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. The market takes place every Saturday through October 17 just south of W. Howard Avenue on S. 6th Street.

Finally, the Garden District will host its Neighborhood Rummage Sale on Sunday, September 20 at the Farmers' Market site from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Space is still available for additional participants in the event, who must bring their own tables, chairs and a canopy. Contact Dawn Riegel at (414) 379-2450 for more information.
