MEDIA ADVISORY

Job Fair is Friday in preparation for opening of St. Ann Center on the North Side

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II invites Milwaukee residents to learn about career opportunities that are available at the St. Ann Center for Intergenerational Care, an intergenerational community care facility developed at 2450 W. North Ave. that stands to have a transformative impact on the surrounding neighborhood.

The St. Ann Center plans to open for business on September 1, and will sponsor a job fair from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Friday, June 26 at The Milwaukee Area Workforce Investment Board, 2342 N. 27th St. Among the positions for which candidates are sought are early childhood education teachers, CNAs, PCWs, LPNs, building and grounds staff, kitchen and housekeeping staff, receptionists, vehicle drivers and security personnel. Various other volunteer opportunities will be showcased as well.

“This is a chance for residents to explore employment opportunities and take an active role in reshaping their neighborhood for the better,” Alderman Stamper said. “Not only does the St. Ann Center plan to hire more than 200 employees, but they’re committed to hiring people from the neighborhood. I’m grateful to have such a good new neighbor.”

Resumes and questions can be sent to mtaylor@stanncenter.org. For more information, visit stanncenternorth.org or call (414) 977-5000.
