Common Council votes to add city review panel to City Channel lineup

The Common Council approved a motion Tuesday (March 29) adding the meetings of the Administrative Review Appeals Board to the City Channel lineup. The Administrative Review Appeals Board is an important part of city government as it preserves the important legal right to due process of citizens in their interactions with various city departments.

Alderman José G. Pérez, who serves as a member of the Administrative Review Appeals Board, said, “The appeals process and the work of the Board are important for the citizens of Milwaukee to see.”

City Clerk Jim Owczarski said, “This is transparency at its most basic level, everyday people having their day in court in front of a city body. It even sometimes proves that you can ‘fight city hall’ and win.”

Administrative Review Appeals Board meetings will now be televised live on the City Channel (Channel 25 on Time Warner Cable and on AT&T U-Verse Channel 99) in the City of Milwaukee. Meetings can also be viewed via streaming video on the city website at milwaukee.gov/CityChannel.
