MEDIA ADVISORY

Alderman Cavalier Johnson, neighbors, to join forces against speeding, reckless driving

Alderman Cavalier Johnson will join concerned citizens and neighbors on Friday, June 10 between 3:30 and 5 p.m. to address speeding and reckless driving along 60th St. and W. Capitol Dr. Alderman Johnson will stand holding signs asking motorists to slow down together with members of the Dineen Park Neighborhood Association, the Sherman Park Community Association and the Grasslyn Manor Neighborhood Association.

“Schools are letting out for the summer and more kids are going to be outside enjoying the weather, playing and riding bikes,” Alderman Johnson said. “We, as a community, need to reduce speeds and make sure our kids can be safe playing outside without being endangered by reckless drivers.”
