Register now for 6th annual Girls' Day at City Hall

Young women looking to find out more about a future in public service and leadership can now register to have the opportunity to meet and be inspired by a number of local leaders during the sixth annual Girls' Day at City Hall, hosted on Thursday, March 24th by Aldерwoman Milele A. Coggs.

Space is limited, and registration for Girls' Day ends at the close of business on Friday, March 18. Online registration can be accessed at <http://city.milwaukee.gov/commoncouncil/District6/girlsdayreg>.

Mayor Tom Barrett will be attending this year's Girls' Day at City Hall. For additional information contact the District 6 office at 286-2994 or adantz@milwaukee.gov.

This year's event will include panel discussions and workshops in addition to opportunities for active engagement and involvement with several public service-oriented organizations and entities focused on young women and led by women, including: PEARLS for Teen Girls; Girl Scouts; Girls in Action; and the City of Milwaukee Fire and Police Commission (Police and Fire Cadet programs). Additionally, attendees will have the opportunity to find out more about spending time with elected officials and others in public service during an upcoming "Shadow Day."

The morning key note address will be provided by Gerry A. Howze, Executive Director of PEARLS for Teen Girls.

On March 24th Aldерwoman Coggs will kick off the event at 9:15 a.m. in the City Hall rotunda, 200 E. Wells St., and the media is invited to attend the opening ceremony. Girls who have pre-registered must check in (starting at 8:30 a.m.) prior to the day's sessions.
