Nominations now open for 6th District Difference Makers Award

Aldewoman Milele A. Coggs is once again seeking nominations for the Dr. James G. White 6th District Difference Makers Award, honoring those persons or organizations making the 6th District a great place in which to live. Nominations are now being accepted, with a deadline at the close of business on Friday, December 23, 2016.

Aldewoman Coggs said the award recognizes selfless and dedicated work to improve the district, neighborhoods and the community. "The Difference Makers Award recognizes the strength and dedication shown by people and organizations that go the extra mile to improve the quality of life in the 6th District," Aldewoman Coggs said.

"That sense of commitment and that selfless and generous spirit truly embodies the beliefs and actions of the late Dr. James G. White," Aldewoman Coggs said.

"I urge residents to nominate individuals or organizations for this prestigious award," she said. A nomination form (attached) is now available.

Aldewoman Coggs established the Dr. James G. White 6th District Difference Makers Awards to recognize those residents and organizations that work diligently to improve and strengthen the quality of life for themselves, their neighborhood and the City of Milwaukee. Dr. White was a resident of the 6th District who served as a county supervisor and the regional vice president of WestCare Wisconsin Harambee Community Center, facilitating countless neighborhood projects and programs and always using his gifts, talents and knowledge to improve and empower his community.
