First in series of Saturday hearings on public safety issues to be held on near NW side

Milwaukee citizens will have the opportunity to provide input, ideas and feedback on potential solutions to the city's public safety issues during a public hearing at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday (October 8) before the Public Safety Committee in the auditorium at Marshall High School, 4141 N. 64th St.

According to Public Safety Committee chair Alderman Bob Donovan, Saturday's hearing offers an open opportunity for citizens to weigh in on public safety issues. "The committee is looking forward to hearing directly from individuals about what they are seeing in their neighborhoods," Alderman Donovan said. "We hope to hear from as many people as possible about public safety challenges, and also about their ideas for how to help reduce problems and how we might better respond to specific issues."

This month the Public Safety Committee is conducting Saturday hearings for the general public to provide input on the following dates and at the designated times and locations:

- Saturday, October 8 at 9:30 a.m., Ald. Cavalier Johnson, a member of the Public Safety Committee, will host at Marshall High School, 4141 N. 64th St.
