Ald. Lewis invites residents to Granville BID's Car, Truck and Bike Spectacular

Alderman Chantia Lewis and the Granville Business Improvement District invite Milwaukeeans to attend the Car, Truck and Bike Spectacular this Sunday, September 18 from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Russ Darrow car dealership, 7676 N. 76th St.

The car show is free to attend, and will feature up to 300 cars, hot rods, customs, classics, pickups and motorcycles on display, along with music, food trucks and a live radio broadcast. The show competition will award 60 trophies in different classes. Custom car icon and builder Darryl Starbird will be on hand to greet attendees and present the "Reach for the Stars Best of Show" trophy.

"Summer is winding down, and I hope all my neighbors and people from throughout the city can take advantage of the nice weather and attend this fantastic event," Alderman Lewis said. "It's a great way to spend some quality time with the family without having to spend a whole lot of money."
