MEDIA ADVISORY

NACOPRW national conference to be held in Milwaukee next week

Alderman Pérez announced today that the National Conference of Puerto Rican Women's 43rd annual leadership conference, "Rising to Excellence through Health, Education and Economic Development," will be held in Milwaukee from Friday, October 28 to Sunday, October 30. Alderman José G. Pérez will address the conference during the keynote on Friday with Mayor Tom Barrett.

"I'm honored to be given the opportunity to address the attendees of this conference," Alderman Pérez said. "I'm also very excited and proud that the National Conference of Puerto Rican Women has chosen Milwaukee as the site for its 43rd leadership conference. Our city has a lot to offer these visitors, and I hope everyone will join me in giving them a warm welcome."

The conference is sponsored by Northwestern Mutual, Aurora Healthcare, AARP of Milwaukee, UMOs Latina Resource Center Milwaukee, American Cancer Society and Froedtert & Medical College of Wisconsin. Visit www.nacoprw.org for more info.
