Know your rights when it comes to child support

Info session scheduled for Friday, July 29

Milwaukee Child Support, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and Milwaukee Job Service will be partnering to offer an informational session, “Child Support 101: Knowing Your Rights,” tomorrow (Friday, July 29), Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II said today.

The session will begin at 10 a.m. Friday at the YWCA (2nd Floor), 1915 N. Martin Luther King Dr.

Discussion topics at Friday’s session will include:

- Arrears adjustments
- Joint placement
- What happens when my child turns 18?
- Knowing your rights
- Fidelity bonding
- Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC)
- DWD Pipeline Curriculum

“This session offers a great opportunity to find out more about your rights as a custodial or non-custodial parent, and to be able to meet one-on-one with a specialist to discuss any questions you have,” Alderman Stamper said.

Anyone looking for additional information or with questions should contact Frederick Nelson, Department of Workforce Development, Job Service, at 414-267- 3288 or via email: Frederick.Nelson@dwd.wisconsin.gov.
