Housing Resource Fair is Saturday, April 30th

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II invites residents to participate in the Washington Park Housing Resource Fair TOMORROW Saturday, April 30, 2016 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at Community Care, 3220 W. Vliet St.

Homeowners can speak with representatives from organizations that help with home preservation, tax delinquency, and foreclosure prevention. Renters can come learn about some of the available rental properties in the neighborhood.

“This is a great opportunity to learn about all the great resources to help buy your home in Washington Park, and to talk with key homeownership agencies such as Habitat for Humanity, Housing Resources Inc., and ACTS Housing,” Alderman Stamper, II said.

Homeowners can also apply for the Washington Neighborhood Improvement Home Improvement Grant, and meet with contractors to find out more about repairs. Attendees can also attend the ACTS Housing “How to Pick a Contractor” information session.

Individuals facing foreclosure, tax delinquency, or problems with code violations can come tomorrow and talk with home preservation agencies such as Community First, Wells Fargo, Neighborhood Improvement Development Corp. (NIDC), and the City of Milwaukee Code Compliance and City Treasurer's Office.
