Church ribbon-cutting marks key milestone

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II said the community and news media are invited to attend the grand opening of the new community center at Unity Gospel House of Prayer, 1747 N. 12th St. The event will take place at the new center at noon on Sunday, January 29.

Alderman Stamper said the new facility will serve the neighborhood and the community. “The facility will provide opportunities for persons of all ages to participate in a wide range of programs that educate and stimulate, enhance self-confidence, and promote mental and physical health and wellness,” he said. “I congratulate the church on this key milestone, which also coincides with its 44th anniversary.”

According to the church, the new multi-purpose facility will provide support and educational programming in the following areas: etiquette, computer skills, sewing, job-readiness and college preparation for high school students, health and wellness, and personal hygiene.
