MEDIA ADVISORY

Suspected arson cases to be addressed during 2 p.m. news conference TODAY

Alderman Bob Donovan and Alderman José G. Pérez will host a news conference at 2 p.m. TODAY Friday, June 9 to address a rash of suspected arson incidents that occurred on the city's south side overnight.

The incidents – eight in total – occurred in the 8th and 12th Aldermanic Districts, and according to the Milwaukee Fire Department, several buildings, garages and garbage carts were set on fire. The incidents are currently under investigation by the MFD Fire Investigation Unit and Milwaukee Police. The majority of the incidents took place on the near south side between W. Lincoln and W. Greenfield, from S. 30th St. to S. 10th St.
