TONIGHT: Community listening session at Washington Park Senior Center

This evening (Tuesday, May 16) Alderwoman Chantia Lewis will join state Senator LaTonya Johnson, state Representative David Bowen, County Supervisor Supreme Moore Omokunde and County Supervisor Sequanna Taylor for a listening session to hear citizens voice their concerns, needs and suggestions.

The Washington Park Senior Center (4420 W. Vliet St.) doors will open at 5:30 p.m. with the event set to begin at 6 p.m. The Office of Violence Prevention will participate and will present Michael McBride, and the public may call 414-313-1241 for additional information regarding the event.

“This listening session is a prime opportunity for citizens to speak about the needs and concerns related to their neighborhood, and it’s also a great way to share ideas and suggestions to help improve the quality of life for themselves and their neighbors,” Alderwoman Lewis said.

“I strongly encourage the public to join us tonight,” she said.
