Family friendly "Artist Market" blossoms in the Garden District on August 27th

Alderman Terry L. Witkowski announces the Garden District's third annual Artist Market on Sunday August 27 from noon to 4 p.m.

Come see wares from across the region with more than 20 artists, crafters, and vendors selling their arts, goods, jewelry, and services. There will also be performers including Tamarind Tribal Belly Dance.

Alderman Witkowski says, "This is the perfect family friendly event. Come stroll through the Artist Market and support your local artists."

The event will be located at the Garden District Farmers Market lot at S. 6th St. and W. Norwich St., across from the Water Tower. If you'd like more information about the event and the Garden District go to <http://milwaukeegdna.com>.
