SUMMER 17

Hello Neighbors,

This August will mark my second year as your alderman. I am grateful and honored for this privilege. As one of my “bosses” please hold me accountable. I know that many of you do correspond but I try to represent you the best way possible and I have made mistakes. As such, I do not consider anyone in our community, especially other elected officials, “sacred cows”. We all need to be held accountable including, judges, the police chief and the mayor, etc. when necessary.

Please note that this newsletter also notes some changes in the district and office. As of June, 2017 District 6 has a new Captain, we welcome Captain Jeffrey Point to his new position. Captain Point and his family are residents of the 11th District. Thank you to the outgoing Captain Diana Rowe, also a resident in District 11, who now is the Captain in District One (downtown).

For those of you who have called the office since last November, the longtime “gate keeper” Terri Prejs has retired. I thank her for 18 years of working for the people of the 11th District (under Alderpersons Scherbert, Dudzik, and myself). She is replaced by Sherry Prochaska, who has stepped in very seamlessly.

Finally, summer, please note the calendar for events in this edition. The Jackson Park Neighborhood Association has its Farmers Market every Thursday evening from 3:30pm to 7:00pm through September at Jackson Park. Have a great and safe summer and please let us know where we can help.

Sincerely,

Mark Borkowski
Alderman, 11th District

Find Out More About the Block Watch Program

Block Watch is a program allowing neighborhoods the opportunity to come together and help prevent and report crime. One of the best tools used to fight crime is a good neighbor. The Police Department can't be on every corner, so a watchful and alert neighbor is an excellent tool to help direct police officers to suspicious activity and possible crime.

START A BLOCK WATCH

To start a Block Watch in your area, contact Officer Carlos Felix or Officer Joshua Dummann at 935-7198 or email Officer Felix at cfelix@milwaukee.gov.

CRIME UPDATE FROM APRIL 2017

Per the District 6 crime report from April 2017, crime in the district has specific days of the week where crime is higher than others. Burglaries tend to happen more on Thursdays and Saturdays, and late in the day/night, with the fewest on Mondays and Tuesdays. Assaults tend to happen more on Sundays and early in the morning. Car thefts tend to happen more on Tuesdays and Fridays, late in the day/night.

BURGLARY WARNING

Burglars will often use a con to gain entry to your home. The subject will knock on your door and when you answer attempt to play upon your sympathies. The subject will claim to be cold or hungry and in need of your help. When you let the person in and leave the person alone they will take items and leave. ■

Analyze Crime in Your Neighborhood

Want an idea as to what kinds of crime are taking place in your neighborhood? The Police Department posts weekly Crime Analysis maps on the MPD website at milwaukee.gov/police for your review. Look under "Crime Statistics" on the site.

In addition, a summary report of crime and other useful searches is also available on the city web site, COMPASS, at milwaukee.gov/compass. ■

Top 12 and Dirty Dozen a Friendly Reminder on What to Recycle ➤

The City of Milwaukee, along with the Department of Public Works, have come up with the Top 12 and the Dirty Dozen, a way to remind Milwaukee residents what can and cannot be recycled curbside.

The Top 12 and Dirty Dozen is part of the Milwaukee Recycle for Good initiative. The Dirty Dozen are materials that can injure employees, and also damage equipment. The Top 12 are materials that can be recycled curbside, such as paper and glass bottles. For further questions on what can or cannot be recycled curbside, please visit milwaukeeerecycle.com. ■

In February, Ald. Borkowski welcomed the Very Reverend Stavr. Dragan K. Veleusic of St. Sava Serbian Orthodox Cathedral (3201 S. 51st St.) to City Hall and the Common Council Chambers, where Dean Veleusic delivered a formal invocation at the start of a regular meeting of the Council.

Be Alert for Rat Problems ➤

Road reconstruction and sewer projects can sometimes cause rats to migrate from mostly underground nesting areas to city neighborhoods. City Department of Neighborhood Services workers use rodent bait and other means to address rat problems in Milwaukee, and 11th District residents are urged to make sure they report any suspected rat harborages and to keep garbage properly secured.

Rats especially prefer spaces underneath garages and sheds. Any resident witnessing the problem should call DNS at 286-2268 so that workers can inspect the situation and place baits if necessary (they can also answer questions about proper disposal of dead rats).

Residents are asked to remove fallen garbage from garbage carts and containers, fruit from trees, vegetables from gardens, dog litter, dog food, bird seed from under bird feeders and any other items that may fall on the ground or out in the open and can be used as food. Also—please do not feed raccoons or squirrels, as this will also attract rats.

Rat infestations can quickly get out of hand when people are careless, but Alderman Borkowski said residents working together can help eliminate the problem. ■
