MEDIA ALERT

Former Commissioner of Health will not appear before Steering and Rules Committee

Former Health Department Commissioner Bevan Baker, at the advice of his legal counsel, has opted not to appear before the Common Council's Steering and Rules Committee during its special meeting on Monday, September 24, according to Common Council President Ashanti Hamilton, chair of the committee.

As a result, this meeting has been cancelled.

President Hamilton said the Common Council is continuing to explore its options and has not ruled out the use of its subpoena power as it continues to gather information.
