MEDIA ADVISORY

Westlawn community mural unveiling today at 1 p.m.

Alderman Cavalier “Chevy” Johnson invites residents to attend the community mural unveiling today at 1 p.m. at the Silver Spring Neighborhood Center Community Garden, 5460 N. 64th St. A formal program will include remarks from Alderman Johnson, Katie Sanders, executive director of Safe & Sound, Safe & Sound Youth Organizer Joshua Jenkins, MPD District 4 Captain Heather Wurth and others, including youth who worked on the project.

The three-tiered community mural was envisioned and created in the Silver Spring Neighborhood Center Community Garden by local youth. It is the first of 10 unveilings at Safe & Sound-organized community projects as part of a series funded by Potawatomi Hotel and Casino’s Heart of Canal Street program.

“The Safe & Sound mural project brought youth together to create something very special in the Westlawn neighborhood, and I am looking forward to being a part of today’s unveiling program,” Alderman Johnson said.
