MEDIA ADVISORY

Bus driver who aided pregnant woman on Christmas Eve to be honored at City Hall

Alderman Milele A. Coggs along with her colleagues will be recognizing Ms. Tayetta Currin at 9 a.m. tomorrow during a special presentation at the start of the regular meeting of the full Common Council in the third floor Council Chamber at City Hall, 200 E. Wells St.

Ms. Currin went above and beyond the call of duty as a bus driver for the Milwaukee County Transit System when she saw a pregnant woman in the snow on Christmas Eve and offered her aid. She was able to act quickly, call for emergency medical technicians, and keep the pregnant woman warm inside the bus while waiting for help to respond.

Alderwoman Coggs said she is looking forward to recognizing Ms. Currin at tomorrow's Council meeting. "Ms. Currin demonstrated a level of compassion that is much needed in our community," she said.

What: Recognition of Ms. Tayetta Currin

When: 9 a.m. on Wednesday, January 17

Where: City Hall, 3rd floor, Common Council Chamber
