Town hall to include 6th District Difference Makers Awards

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs will present the Dr. James G. White 6th District Difference Makers Award to selected honorees during the 6th District town hall meeting TOMORROW at the Martin Luther King, Jr. Library, 310 W. Locust St. The meeting on Wednesday, January 17, 2018 will begin at 5:30 p.m. in the community room.

The Difference Makers Award was founded by Alderwoman Coggs to recognize selfless and dedicated work to improve the district, neighborhoods and the community. The award recognizes those residents and organizations that work diligently to improve and strengthen the quality of life for their neighborhood and the City of Milwaukee. Dr. White was a resident of the 6th District who served as a county supervisor and the regional vice president of WestCare Wisconsin Harambee Community Center, facilitating countless neighborhood projects and programs. He used his gifts, talents and knowledge to improve and empower his community.

The meeting will include discussions about city services and other topics, and city representatives will be in attendance from the Department of Public Works, the Department of Neighborhood Services, the Department of City Development, Milwaukee Police Department District Five and District One, and the Neighborhood Improvement Development Corp. (NIDC).

Reasonable accommodations will be provided upon request. Please call (414) 286-2233.
