MEDIA ADVISORY

Kwanzaa Celebration and Market Place event TOMORROW

The Northcott Neighborhood House, Inc. will host a Kwanzaa Celebration and Market Place event TOMORROW – Saturday, December 29th – from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs said the event will feature vendors, food, local artists and a performance celebration at 11 a.m. “The event is themed ‘Celebrating Ujamaa: Cooperative Economics’ and will showcase important aspects of Kwanzaa,” she said.

“I strongly encourage residents to come out tomorrow to Northcott Neighborhood House and take part in this enriching event,” the alderwoman said.

Kwanzaa is a week-long celebration that honors ancient and living cultural tradition, reflecting the best of African thought and practice in its reaffirmation of the dignity of the human person in community and culture, the well-being of family and community, the integrity of the environment and our kinship with it, and the rich resource and meaning of a people's culture. It is observed from December 26 to January 1.
