Alderwoman Coggs to host Black History Month Read-In

To celebrate Black History Month, Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs invites parents and children to attend the Black History Month Read-In at Martin Luther King Library, 310 W. Locust St on Wednesday, February 21.

During the event, guest readers, including City Treasurer Spencer Coggs, will read books written by African-American authors. Ald. Coggs is sponsoring the read-in in recognition of the 28th National African-American Read-In, a program that promotes diversity in literature.

“This read-in will shine a spotlight on the great works and themes of African-American authors. We are celebrating Black History Month in all aspects, including literature,” said Ald. Coggs. “I am excited to share these compelling stories written by diverse authors with the young readers in our community.”

The Black History Month Read-In is free and open to everyone. Light refreshments will be served at the event. The event will be held from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.
