Job fair for all ages and skill levels this Friday

Alderman Khalif J. Rainey invites residents to a community job fair this Friday. More than 40 employers representing a variety of industries will be there to share about open positions and conduct interviews onsite. The event will occur at Owen’s Place, 4610 W. Fond Du Lac Ave.

All ages and skill levels are welcome.

“Steady employment is vital to the success and health of families and the community, so I applaud Owen’s Place and its sponsors for providing this resource,” said Ald. Rainey.

What: Job and Resource Fair

When: Friday, May 25 from noon to 3 p.m

Where: Owen’s Place, 4610 W. Fond Du Lac Ave.

Owen’s Place is a drop-in resource center for youths age 16-to-24. More information about the center and its job fair can be viewed on this video.
