New café set for grand opening in 9th District

Alderwoman Chantia Lewis is pleased to announce the grand opening of a new café in the 9th Aldermanic District. Rey's Café opens tomorrow (Thursday, August 23) in Granville at 6800 W. Brown Deer Rd.

The café will also feature catering and delivery. The grand opening is just another example of Alderwoman Lewis's push for greater economic development and redevelopment in the 9th District and especially in the Granville Business Improvement District.

"I am continuing my efforts to attract new and budding businesses to the district and I encourage residents to consider stopping by Rey's Café in the #New9thMKE," she said. "And let's continue to support all of our 9th District businesses and show them we appreciate them!"
