Streetcar Called “Disaster”

Statement of Alderman Mark A. Borkowski

The community was informed of now a second lawsuit dealing with the tracks of the streetcar. And the “darn” thing is not even in operation yet! Clearly an inauspicious start!!

Many constituents and residents have mentioned to me about the downtown traffic and problem weather. Are we ready Milwaukee? With the terrible track record of lawsuits dealing with the police department and knowing of issues dealing with lead in water, another round of lawsuits to affect this city is the last thing this cash-strapped community can afford.

I know that the streetcar has a name but hopefully it will not be called “The Disaster!”
