Statement from Alderman Pérez on fallen MPD officer June 8, 2018

My deepest condolences go out to the family of Milwaukee Police Officer Charles Irvine, Jr.

Officer Irvine's involvement in law enforcement began when he still a teenager. Tragically, just a few years later he is killed in the line of duty at 23-years-old while working to protect the community from reckless driving. Meanwhile, his 36-year-old partner fights for his life.

I ask that the community continue to keep these brave men and their families in their thoughts and prayers.
