MEDIA ADVISORY

“Heal the Hood” event to focus on positive activities, celebrate community

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II invites Milwaukee residents to attend the Heal the Hood Block party and resource fair this weekend, Saturday, July 14 from 12:00-6:00 p.m. located on N. 10th -11th and W. Center Streets.

The event is free and open to the public.

The Heal the Hood campaign strives to promote self-sustainability and non-violence. This campaign encourages all to join the conversation on how to end violence and crime in the community by coming together and making a change. This weekend’s block party is a great place for the community to create something positive. It will feature free food, local vendors, free haircuts, and more. This will be the biggest block party yet!

“Don’t miss this great opportunity for neighbors to come together to help the community while having fun and enjoying family-friendly activities,” Alderman Stamper said.

Other sponsors for the Heal the Hood block party and resource fair are Think Health Act Now of the City of Milwaukee Health Department, Office of Violence Prevention, Heal the Hood Milwaukee and The Cultured Vegan.
