Transforming Youth Justice in Milwaukee

Common Council President Ashanti Hamilton and Youth Justice Milwaukee invite all interested residents to participate in Milwaukee's Youth Justice Movement by attending two consecutive sessions on Wednesday, May 29 and Thursday, May 30, 2019. Both sessions will be held at Destiny High School, 7210 N. 76th St. from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Session I: What is Youth Justice in Milwaukee? on May 29th will feature a brief overview of Youth Justice in Milwaukee and the Blueprint for Peace, and an interactive discussion about the specific ideas presented, matching community to specific ongoing opportunities for involvement, and identifying additional dynamic needs and strategies.

Session II: What does Youth Justice NEED TO BE? on May 30th will be a review of the existing continuum of care for youth in Milwaukee County, and designing a new approach with specific recommendations, within the domains of public health (including economic and racial justice), violence prevention, positive youth development, mental health and substance treatment, family and individual support, and justice system interventions.

These community sessions are free and open to the public.

Refreshments will be provided.

An RSVP is welcome, but not required. For more information, please see the attached flyer.
