MEDIA ADVISORY

Rally at 5 p.m. to support movement in Puerto Rico

Alderman José G. Pérez said residents will hold a rally downtown in Red Arrow Park (Kilbourn and Water Streets) TODAY at 5 p.m. to show support for the movement toward justice in Puerto Rico.

“I stand with other local residents of Puerto Rican descent who are demanding that the home of our ancestors be governed by a fair and honest government,” Alderman Pérez said.

In the largest demonstrations in Puerto Rico in 20 years, tens of thousands of protestors are demanding the resignation of Gov. Ricardo Rosselló, whose leaked obscenity-laced online chats with advisors show insults to women and mocking of constituents, including victims of Hurricane Maria.

What: Rally for Puerto Rico

When: TODAY - Monday, July 22 at 5:00 p.m.

Where: Red Arrow Park – Kilbourn and Water
