Fall Fest is Saturday in the Garden District

Alderman Scott Spiker invites residents to enjoy autumn at its best on Saturday, October 5th – during the Garden District Neighborhood Association’s Garden District Fall Fest. The event is FREE and will include a wide variety of family-friendly activities.

Kohl’s Wild Theater and the Milwaukee Zoo will put on a play starting at 1 p.m. Children can go from vendor to vendor for trick or treat goodies and kids who come in costume will get an extra prize. There will be crafts, games and pumpkins – all free – while supplies last.

“The Garden District Market at the Wilson Park Senior Center will be transformed for this great event – please bring the family and join in the crisp fall fun,” Alderman Spiker said.

Fall Fest is sponsored by the Garden District Neighborhood Association and run by volunteers. For questions or additional information please call 414-379-2450.
