MEDIA ADVISORY

Alderman Spiker invites the community to Fall Fiesta

Alderman Scott Spiker invites citizens to join him at the Fall Fiesta event TOMORROW - Saturday, September 21 to engage with fellow community members and to celebrate the new season of fall. The Fall Fiesta will take place at the Carmen/Pulaski Playfield at 2500 W. Oklahoma Ave. in the 13th Aldermanic District from 10:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Alderman Spiker said the event will include multiple food vendors, games for kids and sports activities, face painting, caramel apple making, pumpkin and cookie decorating, as well as free blood pressure screenings and health information. This is a FREE community event and is sponsored by the S. 27th St. Business Improvement District (Historic Route 41), Pulaski High School, and Carmen Schools of Science & Technology.

“Please join me and the community at large to properly kick off the fall season!” Alderman Spiker said. “This is a great event to engage with your neighbors in a fun, family-friendly atmosphere.”
