MEDIA ADVISORY

Ald. Witkowski to host ‘Howl on Howell’ promo news conference

Alderman Terry L. Witkowski will host a news conference at 10 a.m. TOMORROW – Thursday, May 30 to promote Saturday’s inaugural Howl on Howell neighborhood festival showcasing local businesses. The alderman will be joined by members of the Garden District Neighborhood Association and business owners.

Alderman Witkowski said Howl on Howell is Howell Avenue’s first festival and will take place on Howell Avenue, from Howard to Bolivar, on Saturday (June 1) starting at 11 a.m.

“The businesses along Howell have worked hard and have put together a family-friendly festival that will be of interest to old and young alike,” he said. “There will be vendor and business offerings on the sidewalk and in the street, and there will be live music and food. It’s sure to be a howling good time!”

The Tippecanoe Library will also have events, and the Garden District Neighborhood Association and the Howell Avenue planning safety committee are also lining up attractions for children and families. Please see the attached map for additional details.
