Alderwoman Nikiya Dodd to host district-wide town hall meeting for residents of Milwaukee's 5th District

The Town Hall is the first district-wide meeting of the year for 5th District residents and newly-elected Alderwoman Nikiya Dodd

WHAT: 5th District-Wide Town Hall meeting

WHEN: Thursday, April 11
5:30-7:00 p.m.

WHERE: Grace Christian Fellowship
9900 W. Capitol Dr.

“This is the first time since my election that I will meet with the residents of the district collectively to discuss issues directly impacting their neighborhoods and affecting their quality of life,” said Alderwoman Dodd. “I am looking forward to hearing from neighbors about their safety concerns, neighborhood initiatives, and opportunities to work together.”

Ald. Dodd has invited City of Milwaukee departments to attend as well; they include representatives from the Department of Public Works, Milwaukee Police Department, Milwaukee Water Works, and the Department of Neighborhood Services. In addition, community organizations such as Safe and Sound, Housing Resources, Inc., and SaintA will be in attendance.
