MEDIA ADVISORY

Reparations panel discussion and informational event is Saturday

A panel discussion and informational event hosted by the National Coalition of Blacks for Reparations in America (N'COBRA) will be held TOMORROW – Saturday, October 12 at America's Black Holocaust Museum in the 6th Aldermanic District, said Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs.

N'COBRA is a coalition of organizations and individuals organized for the sole purpose of obtaining reparations for African descendants in the United States focused on five categories of injuries: People Hood/Nation Hood; Health; Education; Prison industrial Complex; and Cruel & Unusual Punishment.

Saturday's event will feature Kamm Howard, N'COBRA National Male Co-Chair & Legislative Commission Co-Chair, and will include a dialogue and discussion of the "Legalistic Framework for Reparations for Blacks in America and the International African Descendants."

Panelists will include educators, elected officials, scholars, authors, health professionals, community activists, and audience participants. The event is FREE and open to the public.
