MEDIA ADVISORY

Ald. Coggs invites residents to Milwaukee Urban League's Biz Night

Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs encourages residents to attend Biz Night, a small business and entrepreneurship event presented by the Milwaukee Urban League and US Bank in celebration of Black History Month. Alderwoman Coggs will take part in the event, which takes place TODAY - Wednesday February 27, from 4:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at The Vibe, 518 E. Concordia Ave.

Biz Night will feature networking opportunities, a resource fair, and a panel discussion and workshop sessions with successful minority business owners. Those interested must register online at <https://tmul.org/>. Registration is free and the event will also feature free parking, a buffet, and prize drawings.

"Biz Night is a great networking event for residents wanting to learn more about small businesses and entrepreneurship," said Ald. Coggs. "I strongly encourage everyone to check out this free event and see what it has to offer."

The event is held in partnership with the African American Chamber of Commerce of Wisconsin and LISC Milwaukee.
