Bronzeville Week continues with live entertainment, educational events

Bronzeville Week 2019 continues today and Friday with live entertainment acts, educational events and a variety of other activities. Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs is the host of Bronzeville Week, which goes through Saturday, August 10.

Today - Thursday August 8 started with Bronzeville Business Breakfast: A Democratic Convention (DNC) Discussion. The discussion focused on the impact the DNC can have for the Bronzeville area and was held at Jewels Caribbean Bar & Restaurant, 2230 N. Dr. MLK Jr. Dr. from 8:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. The day closes with a Library Loud Day event featuring American Klassiks, a performance featuring three groups that reinterprets time-tested spirituals, hymns and anthems. The concert will be at the Martin Luther King Branch Library, 310 W. Locust St. from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Tomorrow - Friday, August 9 is a day filled with exercise, entertainment and philanthropy. The morning begins with a one-mile walk with Mayor Tom Barrett, Alderwoman Coggs, residents and the Historic King Drive BID. The event is part of Mayor Barrett's Walk 100 Miles in 100 Days Challenge and starts at Pete's Fruit Market, 2323 N. Dr. MLK Jr. Dr. at 11:00 a.m. After the walk, participants can return to Pete's for the Eat Smart: Healthy Food Demonstration, which begins at noon.

The fun continues into Friday evening, as you're invited to get your groove on at Silent Memories: Disco Party for Memory Loss at MLK Health Center, 2555 N. Dr. MLK Jr. Dr. from 4:00 pm. to 8:00 p.m. The night also includes Move the Crowd: A Night in Bronzeville Live Entertainment on the Block, featuring a variety of local music artists from 5:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. Please see the attached flyer for the full schedule of acts and venues. Finally, the Bronzeville Sleepover for Education will take place from 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 a.m. Saturday at Pete's Fruit Market. Donations of school supplies will be warmly accepted throughout the night, and all supplies will be distributed to Milwaukee Public School students in need.
