Alderman Rainey encourages fathers to make time for their children

Alderman Khalif J. Rainey is encouraging fathers to be engaged in their children's lives, and he will again be attending the SOLD OUT 16th annual Daddy Daughter Dance at North Division High School TOMORROW - Saturday, February 16 at 1011 W. Center St.

According to Ald. Rainey, the annual Daddy/Daughter Dance is a chance for fathers and daughters to dress up and enjoy a great evening together.

“This event provides a great way for young ladies to strengthen their relationships with their fathers, and it goes to the heart of my belief in the importance of fatherhood and for fathers to find ways to connect with their children and to show them they are a priority,” Ald. Rainey said.

The program is made possible through a partnership between Milwaukee Recreation, Social Development Commission, and the Milwaukee Fatherhood Initiative.

The fun annual event includes dancing, food, and prizes. Ald. Rainey encourages fathers to watch for registration information for next year's Daddy Daughter Dance or learn more by calling (414) 475-8811.
