Aldерwoman Chantia Lewis appointed by Governor Tony Evers to the Wisconsin Women’s Council

Aldерwoman Chantia Lewis was appointed by Governor Tony Evers to the Wisconsin Women’s Council on August 14, 2019. A total of seven appointments were made by the governor to the 15-person council.

“I am grateful for the appointment to the Wisconsin Women’s Council by Governor Evers,” Aldерwoman Lewis said.

“It is exciting and I am looking forward to working on issues that affect women across our state with the hopes of bringing a broader conversation and impact. Together, we can fight for equality and equity, which will result in a more inclusive state where women of all backgrounds can truly thrive,” she said.

Aldерwoman Lewis was elected to the Milwaukee Common Council in 2016, and represents residents in the 9th Aldermanic District, the city’s far northwest side. She serves as vice chair of the Finance and Personnel committee, and is a member of the Licenses and Public Safety and Health committees. Ald. Lewis served in the United States Air Force, and currently is attending graduate school to earn her master’s degree in theology.

The mission of the Women’s Council is to:

- Identify barriers to women’s social and economic participation in the state;
- Work with public and private sector partners to develop initiatives and identify solutions; and
- Disseminate information on the status of women and issues of concern to women in the state.
