FOR INFORMATION CALL

March 23, 2020

City Clerk Jim Owczarski
(414) 286-2221

Common Council to offer safe and accessible viewing of meetings

Tomorrow's meeting of the full Common Council will be conducted via online teleconferencing, with nearly all members "attending" remotely via the online Go To Meeting video conference application.

City Clerk Jim Owczarski said the teleconferencing arrangement is necessary because of the social distancing requirements brought about by the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, as well as to follow the "safer at home" orders from Governor Tony Evers and Mayor Tom Barrett.

Mr. Owczarski said no members of the public or reporters (or photographers/videographers) will be permitted in attendance during the meeting, which starts at 9 a.m. tomorrow (Tuesday, March 24) originating from room 301-B at City Hall.

"Although there will be no in-person attendance by the public or members of the media, citizens can still watch the meeting live on the City Channel telecast, and I welcome everyone to join us," he said.

"All Council meetings will be teleconferenced in this manner going forward for the remainder of the coronavirus emergency," Mr. Owczarski said.

Common Council President Ashanti Hamilton said the "new normal" being felt across Milwaukee and the world requires new approaches to meetings of public bodies. "We are committed to transparency and to fully serving every duty we have to the people of Milwaukee," President Hamilton said. "And that includes making our teleconferenced meetings accessible for live public viewing."
