MEDIA ADVISORY

Shalem Healing continues offering free COVID-19 testing on Wednesdays

Shalem Healing will continue offering free walk-up and drive-up COVID-19 testing on Wednesdays through the month of July. The next testing date is tomorrow - June 24th from 4 p.m. – 6 p.m. in the Bader Philanthropies parking lot at 3300 N. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs encourages residents to take advantage of this testing option and said no appointment is needed. Those wishing to be tested do not need to be showing symptoms, and should enter the Bader parking lot via N. 5th St. The tests are being conducted by Shalem Healing, a nonprofit integrative holistic medical clinic.

Testing on Wednesdays will occur during the same 4 p.m. – 6 p.m. time frame weekly.

No one will be turned away while tests are available, but tests are limited. Both nasal and blood testing are FREE. Proper social distancing and precautions will be in effect to ensure safety. Visit www.bader.org for more information.
