Learn more about Fire Cadet opportunity during virtual recruitment

Alderman Russell W. Stamper, II is calling on young Milwaukeeans to strongly consider applying to become a Fire Cadet. The Milwaukee Fire Department is actively recruiting candidates (ages 17-19) who are looking to get the opportunity to get paid while exploring a rewarding career within the Milwaukee Fire Department.

“The Fire Cadet Program offers a tremendous opportunity for young people – including people of color – to get a firsthand look at what being a fire department member looks like,” Alderman Stamper said. “It can be a very rewarding career with great pay and benefits, and I strongly encourage those who are interested to apply as soon as possible.”

The city is currently recruiting for Fire Cadet. The deadline to apply is December 2, 2020. Also, it is required that all applicants have a high school diploma or equivalency.
