Operation Green Light kicks-off with press conference TODAY

Alderman Ashanti Hamilton will be joined by representatives from the Milwaukee Police Department, Villard Avenue Business Improvement District, and Villard Ave. business owners and residents to kick-off Operation Green Light during a press conference happening TODAY – Friday, October 22 at 11 a.m. The press conference will take place at Quasimodo Theater, 5151 N. 35th St.

Operation Green Light will bring four high-tech cameras to different intersections in the neighborhood, with cameras providing real-time intelligence for investigations to help curb reckless driving and other crimes. The project is part of a larger plan in the neighborhood to reduce crime through collaboration between residents, business owners, law enforcement and other stakeholders. As part of Operation Green Light, business owners who participate will also commit to complying with city ordinances for their building, providing adequate lighting, keeping their property clean, and work to deter loitering, among other commitments.
